

Moslems And Hindus Stir Big Political Stew In India

(Editor's Note: In tomorrow's article, DeWitt MacKenzie, recently returned from a study of the Indian situation, continues his discussion of the Hindu-Moslem differences. The following is the eighth in a series of ten articles by the noted war analyst.)

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The Indian political crisis bristles with more dangerous points than a porcupine does with quills, but the greatest of these is the Hindu-Moslem Division which through the generations has been marked by a bitterness that frequently has produced bloodshed in communal rioting.

This deep division between the main parties reached the point where the Hindus and the Moslems charged each other with seeking to rule India. The British have pointed out this situation as evidence that self-government on a unified basis was difficult. The Indians charged that the government was exploiting these differences in order to continue imperialistic rule. Nobody explained why the warring factions, if they knew their quarrel was being exploited, didn't bury the hatchet and thereby spike the guns of their common aversion.

Hindus In Majority
Maybe it will simplify this confused Hindu-Moslem mixup if we take a glance at it from this angle: The population of India is estimated at about 388,000,000. There are some 275,000,000 Hindus and 90,000,000 Moslems. That is to say, the Hindus outnumber the Moslems by three to one.

Now the Hindus want a national government which will take in the whole of India. The Moslems object to a national government on the ground that, since the Hindus have a majority of three to one, the Moslems would be a constant minority without a look-in.

The Hindus are grouped mainly in the powerful all-India congress, which is dominated by Mahatma Gandhi, and in the Hindu Mahasabha, which comprises the more orthodox Hindu. The all-India congress claims to be national and to include members of all religions, though its opponents assert that it is chiefly Hindu.

2 Autonomous States
The Moslems are represented by the powerful all India Moslem league. This is under the presidency of Mahomed Ali Jinnah, a brilliant lawyer who is one of India's outstanding personalities.

In Jinnah's forceful leadership the league has developed an explosive idea to safeguard the Moslem minority against that Hindu majority of three to one. They call it Pakistan. The Pakistan (land of the pure) program rejects entirely the Hindu program for a national government and aims at the division of India into two wholly autonomous states. One of these would be Moslem and the other Hindu, and each would go its own way.

Jinnah is 66 years old but looks 20 years younger with his slim, dapper figure and unlined face. Iron gray hair adds to the distinction of his appearance.

Menace to Islam
"I would welcome any move which would dissolve the political deadlock," he told me. "But what move could be made to secure satisfactory settlement? A parliament with a Hindu majority is impossible, it is a menace to Islam."

"The conception of a united democratic India, having a federal constitution, is an impossible proposition. That is true whether you call the federal connection loose or call it something else."

"A federal government is a trap. Once you are in it you can't get out. A federal link can be developed only if the people are homogeneous. The Moslems and the Hindus are two different nations. They have nothing in common. Their whole social life is different. Democracy is an alien philosophy of the Hindu and to his religion and to his caste system."

Needs Encouragement
Well, having listened for hours to this line of argument I began to view the prospects of Indian unity through dark glasses.

I had asked Mr. Jinnah if there was possibility of a compromise of any sort and he hadn't answered me. I finally gave it up for a bad job and rose to take my departure.

Only then did Jinnah pull me back with the remark "reverting to your question regarding a compromise," and offer to participate in a government in the interest of the war if the British government and the Hindus would agree to the principle of Pakistan.

Jinnah's language didn't depart from his previous stand, but the atmosphere did. His offer to join with the Hindus in a war government was in itself a remarkable thing. Anyway, I came away with the hunch that he would be prepared to compromise and agree to a federal government if he were given encouragement.

$1094 Given To Red Cross On First Day

The War Fund drive of the Red Cross topped the $1,000 mark in its first day, it was announced this morning by Henry M. Scharf, drive chairman, as a small army of volunteer workers pushed house-to-house canvasses in every community of the county in an effort to reach the $18,700 quota as quickly as possible.

Reports at the end of the first day showed $1,094.50 in the War Fund chest.

Teachers at three local school buildings—high school, Meade and Lincoln as well as the administrative staff at the high school—already have enrolled 100 per cent in the fund drive and have sent their contributions in to the Red Cross office.

First lists of contributors were made public today and announced gifts ranging from $1 to $200 each.

Officers Donate
Among the donors are those of two Gettysburg men serving as officers in the U. S. Army. Major M. B. Frazee, Camp Atterbury, Indiana, sent $10 to the county Red Cross with the comment "I don't know what the Army would do without the Red Cross and I want to give my contribution to the drive to the Adams county chapter." Lt. Donald M. Swope from Camp Walters, Texas, sent a $15 check.

Other donations include the following: Gettysburg and Harrisburg Transportation company, $200; Mrs. Elizabeth McPherson, $200; Tuesday Evening bridge club, $5; Student Council of Biglerville high school, $10.50; Christ Lutheran Sunday School, Gettysburg, $2; Idaville U. B. Sunday School, $2; Bethlehem Lutheran Sunday School, Benderville, $3.68; Gettysburg Ministerium from Week of Prayer service offering, $22; York Springs YWCA, $5; John S. Teeter and Son, $50.

NCCW MEMBERS VOLUNTEER FOR STORE SERVICE
Four members of the local branch of the National Council of Catholic Women will serve as volunteers in two local stores this week to help explain the point rationing system to patrons. This was announced Monday evening following the monthly meeting of the organization at which the food rationing program was explained and discussed.

Members agreed that they will work out their point and food purchase orders in their homes to simplify the work of local grocers and to avoid loss of time in the stores. A table display of rationed foods was placed at the meeting by Minter's store and was used in the point system discussion.

Volunteer Service
At the Acme store, Mrs. G. Henry Roth will serve on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Anna McSherry on Wednesday, Mrs. Joseph Riley on Friday and Mrs. J. Walter Coleman on Saturday. Miss McSherry will serve at Redding's grocery store on Friday. Arrangements for help for those two stores were made in response to requests from the grocers to the county consumers' interests committee.

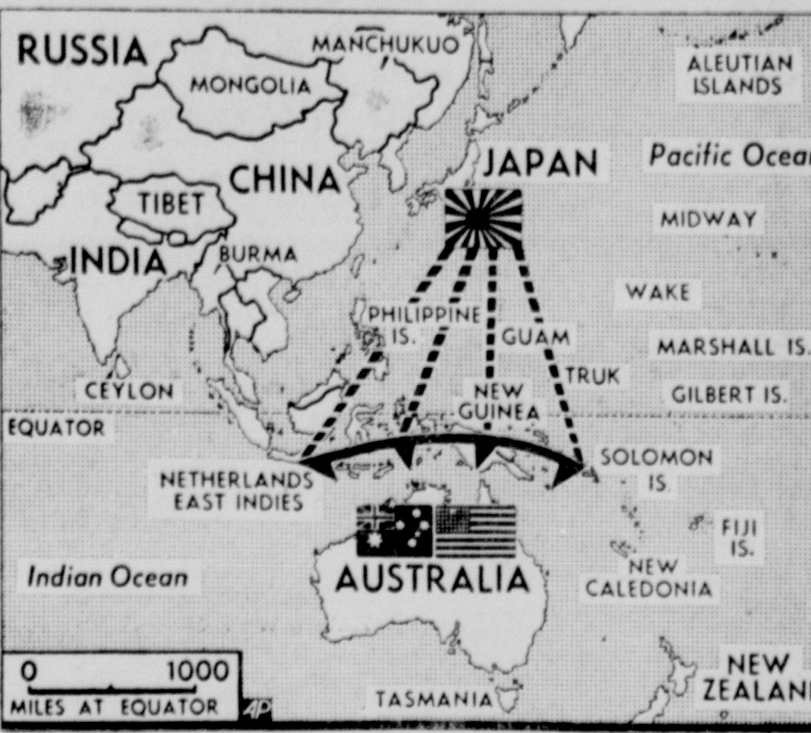

The NCCW unit went on record as being against passage of the equal rights amendment now pending in Congress and directed the secretary to write Congressman Chester Gross informing him of the organization's action.

A $15 contribution to the current Red Cross War Fund drive was voted.

Mrs. Coleman presented a review of the "Song of Bernadette." The meeting was held in the social hall of the parochial school building on West High street.

COUNCIL WILL BUY $10,000 IN WAR BONDS

Gettysburg borough council authorized its finance committee to invest $10,000 of a $13,000 balance in the borough special fund "in legal securities, preferably U. S. War bonds of a series suitable for sinking fund monies."

That action was taken Monday evening at the March meeting of council on recommendation of Ray M. Hoffman, chairman of the borough finance committee, who pointed out that the balance of slightly more than $13,000 in the special fund is "too large to be permitted to lie in bank on a checking account without bearing interest."

The remaining $3,000, with anticipated income from the reduced tax rate, will be sufficient to handle interest payments on borough bonds and bond retirements "until the early 1950's at least," he asserted.

Adopt Tax Rate
The council formally adopted an ordinance fixing the borough tax rate at 13 mills for 1943—11 mills for general purposes and two mills for retirement of bonds and interest payments. The rate, which is a two-mill cut from the 1942 rate, was decided upon last month.

Council also formally adopted the $40,600 borough budget that received preliminary approval in February.

A $300 appropriation to the Gettysburg Recreation association for salaries for supervisors for the local playground this summer was approved. Budgetary provision already had been made for the sum, which is $50 more than the 1942 allotment to the same organization.

In connection with discussions of borough finance Monday evening, Burgess Pfeffer suggested that council make provision to return the principal of the Eichelberger fund taken over for borough use by an earlier council some years ago. The opinion was expressed that the money was placed in the general fund. An investigation of the status and size of the fund is to be made.

Beard-Wolfe Nuptials Are Solemnized This Morning

Miss Naomi Elizabeth Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Wolfe, New Oxford R. 1, and Lt. Edward C. Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Foster Beard, 116 Carlisle street, were united in marriage in St. James Lutheran church here this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ralph E. Gresh, pastor, in the presence of the immediate families and friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The maid of honor was Mrs. Earl Wineman, Gettysburg, a sister of the bride. Franklin D. Beard, Gettysburg R. D., a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Organ Recital

The bride wore a tailored suit with accessories to match and an orchid corsage. Her attendant was dressed in a plaid suit with accessories to match. Her corsage was of tall-martagon roses.

The church was attractively decorated with calla lilies and snapdragons.

Mrs. Carrie Pretz, church organist, gave an organ recital before a ceremony that included "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and "Because." As the bridal party entered

Blackout

Harrisburg, March 2 (AP)—The statewide practice blackout from 8:50 to 9:30 p. m. Thursday night will be the last drill for which the time is announced in advance, the State Defense Council reported today.

The element of surprise is being omitted Thursday to enable everyone to get accustomed to the new warning system.

Here And There
News Collected At Random

Staff Sergeant George W. Baker, 21, the man who was officially reported "killed in action" in the Jap attack on Pearl Harbor fifteen months ago, came home to a family reunion on Monday. . . a reunion his mother never expected to have. . . and all his mother could do was hug her boy and cry.

The rest of the family cried, too. . . even the father. But all the tears that were shed were tears of joy and happiness.

George Baker went off to the war on November 13, 1940. After preliminary training in this country he was sent to Honolulu in March, 1941.

Sunday morning, December 7, George was getting ready to take a shower when he heard "an awful racket." At first he thought the U. S. Navy was doing a little practice shelling. But when George looked out a window and saw a building blow up he knew it was the real thing. . . war.

Someone shouted "all out on the parade ground." George hurriedly donned his clothes and started for the parade ground but when he saw a thousand men out there and Jap bombers flying over head, dropping their "eggs" he knew it wasn't a place for him. He made his way to his Ground Defense Battalion and volunteered for duty with a machine gun crew.

From the machine gun pit George and his mates fired away at Jap bombers as they flew in.

RETAILERS TO AID STAMP SALE

Under its plans for the continuous promotion of the sale of United States War bonds and stamps through retail stores, the Treasury department will make its own distribution of poster materials direct to retailers across the country. This arrangement is expected to provide wider and more effective use of the Treasury poster material by more than one million retail stores.

The first of the Treasury promotions to be affected by the new arrangement is the "Buy a Stamp-a-Day for the Man Who's Away" drive, which opened Monday and will continue through April 30.

Materials to aid the retailers in their patriotic work of selling stamps to their customers during this campaign are being shipped to all county and city War Savings committees. In each case local arrangements will be made for store-to-store delivery of the material.

Retailers who have not received their quota of sales aids should get in touch with the chairman of their local War Savings committee.

Harold N. Graves, assistant to the secretary of the Treasury, recently closed a telegram to all retail associations with this message: "We at the Treasury are grateful to the retailers of the country for their effective use of our material in the past and look forward to their continued help and counsel."

KEPNER WILL FILED

The will of the late Homer V. Kepner, Highland township, has been filed at the court house naming Mervin L. Kepner, Gettysburg R. 3, a son, as the administrator. The estate is estimated to be worth about $1,700 in real estate and personal property.

LOCAL WOMAN'S HUSBAND KILLED IN NORTH AFRICA

Mrs. Richard W. Verhaagen, 236 Steinwehr avenue, received word Monday night from her father-in-law in Norfolk, Virginia, that her husband, Sergeant Richard W. Verhaagen, 22, had been "killed in action" in north Africa. Mrs. Verhaagen, the former Miss Isabelle McSherry, daughter of Edward McSherry, was informed of her husband's death over long distance telephone.

The young soldier's father informed his daughter-in-law that Sergeant Verhaagen had been killed on February 16. No details of the casualty were given the young man's father by the War department who had informed him of the youth's death.

Came Here in 1941
Sergeant Verhaagen came to Gettysburg with Colonel Timberlake's 71st Anti-Aircraft Coast Artillery unit in July, 1941, when he participated in the exercises dedicating a plot of ground on the battlefield for the proposed General Longstreet memorial. The unit had come to Gettysburg on maneuvers and joined in the exercises.

The young soldier and Miss McSherry were married in Westminster September 27, 1941. In a recent letter to his wife Sergeant Verhaagen, who had previously been stationed in England, said that he received seven copies of The Gettysburg Times in one mail.

GETS WATCH FOR TOMATO YIELD

H. W. Sowers, of York Springs, was presented with a gold watch at the annual tomato growers' banquet Monday evening at the C. H. Musselman company plant, Biglerville. The watch was presented for the company by Kenneth Alwine in recognition of Mr. Sowers' "excellent record in tomato growing in 1942." He had two acres of tomatoes averaging 15.52 tons per acre.

Jesse M. Huffington, vegetable extension specialist of State College, talked on "The Most Important Tomato Growing Features for 1943 for Both Economical and Profitable Crops." J. Willis Beldier, head chemist at the plant, talked on "Why Dark Red Ripe Tomatoes are Free of Defects." "What is the Farmer's Part in Solving the Manpower Problem" was discussed by M. T. Hartman, Adams county farm agent.

In connection with his talk, Mr. Huffington showed moving pictures on "Tomato Growing Practices."

Brief talks were given by John A. Hauser and P. R. Seely, the latter of the Musselman plant at Inwood. The personnel of the local plant was introduced during the evening. Piano music was furnished during the evening by Mrs. Charles L. Yost.

Two hundred and fifteen persons attended the banquet.

Like Father, Like Son

Roy C. Mackley, 16 Fifth street, has received word from his son, Private Donald Mackley, 18, that he has been assigned to the same field artillery outfit that his father served with in World War I.

Young Mackley, who entered the service in February and has been sent to Camp Howze, Texas, has been assigned to Battery A, 331st Field Artillery. His father returned from France with the same outfit but was attached to Battery F.

Mr. Mackley went overseas with the 15th Field Artillery, Second Division, and saw action at St. Mihiel, Belleau Wood and the Argonne but was in the hospital when that unit returned to the states. He was transferred to the 331st in France and came home with that detachment.

Appreciation

First contribution received for the 1943 War Fund drive by the Red Cross in Adams county was the annual $25 check from Thomas H. Bateman, Philadelphia, formerly of York Springs.

On that annual $25 check from Mr. Bateman there hangs a tale—

More than 15 years ago Mr. Bateman moved from York Springs to Philadelphia. He had a pet cat that he did not wish to take with him and he turned the problem of finding a home for the cat over to the Red Cross. The Red Cross found a home for the pet and every year since that time has received an unsolicited $25 check from Mr. Bateman.

The check goes to Mrs. Maude W. Kennedy, a Red Cross worker at York Springs, and the York Springs community annually receives credit for the donation.

PURCHASE OF WATER COMPANY HERE DELAYED

Gettysburg borough officials have agreed to "mark time" with their negotiations for municipal ownership of the Gettysburg Water company until it becomes clear what legislative action may be taken at Harrisburg following a recent demand by a state Senator for a state probe of the operation of the law under which "Wall Street financiers" are disposing of utility companies to municipalities in this state.

That course of action was proposed to council Monday evening by Burgess Pfeffer after a report on investigations made in Harrisburg last week by Mr. Pfeffer in connection with the water company situation. Councilmen nodded approval of the Burgess' recommendation that local action be suspended in the matter for the present. No record vote was asked or taken on the proposal.

Confers With Solon

Burgess Pfeffer stated that last Tuesday he was in conference in Harrisburg with State Senator John H. Dent of Westmoreland county, who has asked the Legislature to probe operation of the act of 1939 which John H. Ware, principal owner of the local water company, is using to dispose of utility holdings in the state under long-term managerial contracts that provide for a sharing of the profits between the municipality and the present owners.

The Burgess told council he believes Senator Dent is "100 per cent correct" when he says that Mr. Ware's manipulations defeat the purpose of the Act of 1939. Mr. Pfeffer said he expects to return to Harrisburg this week for further consultations in the matter. He may call council committee heads together after those visits to submit reports, he stated.

The Burgess also disclosed that Mr. Ware offered by long distance telephone at noon on Monday to come to Gettysburg Monday evening to renew conversations with council on his original proposition. The Burgess told council he had told Mr. Ware that unless he had something new to present, he (the Burgess) did not believe Ware could "do much business" by attending the council session.

Mr. Ware did not appear at the meeting.

Both mother and baby are reported to be doing nicely.

Four daughters, Margaret, Doris, Jane and Nancy, preceded the baby born this morning. Mr. Ramer is superintendent of the Times and News Publishing company.

ROMMEL PAYS HEAVY PRICE FOR DEFENSE

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, March 2 (AP)—Allied forces in continued advance in central Tunisia have captured Sbeitla, 18 miles from the town of Kasserine, an Allied headquarters communique announced today.

In the far south the war bulletin said fighters attacked objectives in the Mareth area, but there was no announcement of land action.

On the northern Tunisian battlefield, where Axis forces were seeking to drive on Beja to flank the Allied base of Medjez-el-Bab, the communique said the attacks had lost weight.

In chronicling the fall of Sbeitla, the war bulletin said: "Sbeitla is in our hands. Allied forces continuing their successful advance in the area 20 miles northeast of Kasserine occupied Sbeitla March 1 and penetrated three miles east of the town."

Costly To Enemy
As the enemy attacks in the north lost their momentum, Allied headquarters said, "details of enemy casualties during the past three days show that he has paid a heavy price in men and material and has been held in all sectors. A considerable number of enemy tanks has been destroyed."

There was widespread Allied air activity, including two raids on Palermo, Sicily, by Flying Fortresses and attacks in Tunisia which ranged from another bombing of the docks at the naval base of Bizerte and of railroad bridges between Souss and Sfax to the strafing and bombing of the enemy in the battle area.

Bomb Harbor
Hurri-bombers and Spitfires continued attacks on enemy vehicles in the northern sector of the Tunisian battlefield yesterday while medium bombers raided Mateur, south of Bizerte.

In the Flying Fortress raids on Palermo, the war bulletin said, "many bombs were seen to burst in the harbor area and several ships were hit."

In all, it announced, 25 enemy aircraft were destroyed yesterday and two Sunday night while only four Allied aircraft were missing.

C. A. WILLIAMS LEAVES OFFICE ON AGE LIMIT

As he entered the last month of his service as postmaster for the 13,000 patrons the Gettysburg office serves, Postmaster C. A. Williams issued a statement intended to answer many of the questions with which he has been showered since he announced late in December that he would give up the postmastership March 31.

"I am retiring on account of age," Mr. Williams stated. "All first class postmasters are under Civil Service and must retire at the age of 70 years. I will retire March 31, 1943, after serving as postmaster for nine years and nine months and I will re-enter the real estate broker business on April 1."

First Class Office
Mr. Williams already has passed his seventy-second birthday anniversary. Otherwise his status in the Civil Service would entitle him to continue serving in his present position. When he took his last Civil Service examination on August 4 of last year, he received a rating of 90.81 per cent and was credited with an additional five per cent for his service in the Spanish-American war.

When Postmaster Williams entered the local office on July 4, 1933, Gettysburg was rated among offices of the second class. The office jumped into first class in 1936 and has remained there since that time. Last year the office climbed to a new bracket among first class offices and is retaining that position in volume of stamp sales.

Mr. Williams now is receiving a salary of $3,300 per year.

POSSESSION OF BRITISH BASES BEING SOUGHT

By JACK BELL
Washington, March 2 (AP)—Permanent transfer to the United States of western hemisphere bases leased from the British will be proposed when the Senate takes up legislation to continue the lend lease program for another year, Senator Tydings (D-Md.) said today.

Tydings said he is attempting to draft an amendment which would pave the way for immediate negotiations with the British to obtain permanent title to the bases, which were leased to the United States in exchange for 50 over-age destroyers before this country entered the war.

Expect No Cash
While Tydings said it was his opinion that the United States never will be repaid in cash for lend lease supplies, Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) said the Senate Foreign Relations committee had been informed by Administrator E. R. Stettinius Jr., that a careful accounting is being kept so that the net dollar value of goods and services can be calculated after the war.

The committee called Navy Secretary Knox before it today and Connally predicted quick approval of continuing the program. Democratic leader Barkley of Kentucky said Senate consideration probably will be delayed until the House acts on a companion bill.

Senator Nye (R-ND.), expressing belief that the administrator had "washed out" many of the complaints, said he was much more satisfied after Stettinius informed the committee that Harry Hopkins, a special assistant to the President, had no formal connection with lend lease.

Amusement Tax Is Extended 5 Years

Gettysburg's amusement tax ordinance which nets the borough more than $4,000 annually, was extended for another five years by unanimous action of the borough council at the March meeting on Monday evening.

The ordinance originally was adopted March 7, 1938, for a three-year term. In 1941, two years were added to its life. The measure would have expired this month except for council's action which postpones the termination of the provisions of the ordinance until March, 1948.

The 1942 borough audit, copies of which were distributed to council members Monday evening, showed that Gettysburg netted $4,634.08 from theatre admission tax last year.

London, March 2 (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill had an invitation today to visit the southwestern Pacific war zone with the assurance from General Douglas MacArthur, who extended the invitation, that "the effect would be almost magical." Washington, March 2 (AP)—The Navy announced today 71 casualties in Navy forces, including 11 dead, 16 wounded and 44 missing. This brings to 23,961 the total of Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard casualties reported to next of kin since December 7, 1941. waves of 25 or so planes bombing everything in sight. They got one of the mess halls, he said. For fourteen hours George remained in the machine gun pit although the attack lasted about an hour and half "or two hours at the most."

"I didn't get a scratch," he said. He saw one Jap plane crash in flames.

After this foray George was assigned to a detail guarding a bomb dump.

George explains the mistaken identity which led the false report of his being "killed in action" this way:

"I lost all my clothes. Everybody grabbed anything they could lay their hands on. Somebody may have grabbed my clothes and was killed. My laundry marks were on the clothes he was wearing, hence they thought I was killed."

George applied for transfer to the Air Corps. He got it. He wants to be a pilot . . . and in a pursuit ship, too. At any rate he gets a chance at it. On March 11th he reports to the air base at Santa Ana, California, as an aviation cadet.

Two other Bakers, all sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker, are also in the service. Ray is a glider pilot in Greenville, South Carolina and Leroy Baker is an aviator in the Air Corps at Harding Field.

INDICT FORMER STATE SENATOR

Uniontown, Pa., March 2 (AP)—The Fayette county grand jury indicted former state Senator Anthony Cavalcante and five county officials, including the three county commissioners, yesterday in connection with a $10,000 fee paid Cavalcante for aiding in the settlement of a $104,000 county debt to the commonwealth.

The jurors reported that they found "definite evidence" of the removal of a page from the county commissioners' minutes books and the substitution of another page, in connection with engaging Cavalcante.

County Commissioners John W. Rankin, Arthur Higginbotham and Michael Karolick, and their chief clerk, Earl Huston, were charged with altering, defacing and falsifying minutes and documents belonging to a public office, and with forging, defacing, altering, withdrawing and falsifying records.

YANKS "OPEN" SPRING DRILLS

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 2 (AP)—The late Miller Huggins wouldn't have recognized the opening of spring drills on the expansive, modern baseball park named in his honor by the New York Yankees.

It was wartime training as Scout Johnny Nee, sporting a $5 catcher's mitt, the best he could locate, handled the offerings of Spurgeon Chandler and Johnny Murphy, while a third Yankee pitcher, Atley Donald, was "benched" because his equipment had not arrived from New York.

"The arm feels mighty good," said Chandler, who is in pretty good shape already after a winter of golfing and fishing.

Murphy also has been playing golf, but Donald has had little exercise since the 1942 season closed. He promised to be out for the next practice if he had to borrow a uniform and shoes.

Maroons Snap Arendtsville Winning Streak With 56-24 Victory Here Monday

APPLE PICKERS BATTLE GAMELY ALL THE WAY

Gettysburg high school's cagers breezed through to a 56-24 victory over an outclassed but scrappy Arendtsville high quintet here Monday evening before the largest crowd of the season.

The game served as the final tune-up for both teams in preparation for more important engagements Friday evening. The Maroons meet Mechanicsburg at Shippensburg that night for the South Penn league title while Arendtsville clashes with the York county titlist at York in the first of the District 3 Class B playoffs.

Coach George Forney's outfit played sluggishly in the first half but put on a dazzling attack in the third period which netted 25 tallies. The victory marked the twelfth of the season for Gettysburg while it marked the first reverse for the apple-pickers after an 11-game winning streak.

Fast Start
Wickerham landed two goals in little more than a minute of play to start the scoring. R. Allison retaliated with a long shot after a time out and then Boehner, Fair and March scored twin-pointers before P. Fissel landed a toss from the side. At the close of the period Gettysburg led 13-6.

Arendtsville showed its best advantage in the second period by holding the locals to eight points on goals by Fair, Boehner, Ogden and Wickerham. The Class B county titlist tallied six points on goals by B. Allison and P. Fissel and a pair of fouls by the same lads to make the score 21-12 at the half.

The Maroons landed seven straight goals in rapid succession after the intermission with an impressive bit of offensive play. March, Sachs, March, Fair and Boehner, who tallied three times in the barrage, scored in that order. Arendtsville fought gamely but could not stem the tide. The quarter ended with the Maroons out in front 46-16.

Subs in Action
Coach Forney's reserves played the final two minutes of the third period and finished the game. The entire squad broke into the lineup. Coach Smith also used his entire squad which has been pared to but eight men.

P. Fissel and G. Slaybaugh played nice all-around games for the invaders. While hopelessly outclassed Monday night the Arendtsville team showed enough form that may earn them prestige in the coming playoffs.

Seniors Bow
After leading the reserves 8-6 at half time, the senior class team collapsed in the third period, were outscored 10-0, and lost the preliminary game 19-14. The seniors put up a surprisingly stiff battle and forced their younger opponents all the way. McLaughlin and Shryock, opposing centers, paced their respective teams in the scoring.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 2 (AP)—John McDonald, who's going to Montreal anyway, is the first to say that the Army threw Durocher out on his ear . . . which probably is the last word on the subject. . . . First Navy men to take advantage of the ruling allowing them to compete on college teams apparently were Wrestlers Benjamin Finger and William Suydam of the Pennsylvania Preliminary Pre-Flight outfit. They joined the Penn varsity Saturday to wrestle against the Navy. . . . The Washington Redskins already have a pile of 1943 season ticket applications, but there's been no sign of a rush for opening-day duckets at the Senators' baseball office.

LOSER WINS
Al Warden of the Ogden Standard Examiner relays this yarn about how another Utah scribe, Ralph Jordan, managing editor of the Salt Lake City Desert News, once fell down on an assignment with notably successful results. . . . Jordan was running for Utah State college when he lost a shoe and fell. . . . Four Utah U. rivals were so close behind that they all tumbled over him while the other State athletes had room to go around the pile-up and finish 1-2-3.

Both Lower Merion, last year's champion, and Sharon, last year's runner-up, are contenders in district playoffs.

Elimination playoffs in some districts have begun with "interest in the school boys' court games increasing," declared Edmund Wicht, PIAA executive secretary.

Use Home Courts
Because of transportation problems and the inability of spectators to attend games, Wicht said, some districts have scheduled contests on home floors although in other years neutral courts were sought for playoffs.

In interdistrict games in the east, the District Three champion will meet that of District 11 and the District Two victor that of District 12, boys going to champions of Districts One and Four.

In the west, the District Nine champion will meet that of District Ten and the District Five victor that of District Six, champions of Districts Seven and Eight receiving byes.

Final Setup
Winners of the District Three-Eleven and District Two-Twelve playoffs will meet for the A-2 preliminary eastern regional championship, while the champions of District Four and One will play for the A-1 preliminary title, the victors of these playoffs meeting to decide the final eastern regional championship. In the west, winners of District Five-Six and District Nine-Ten contests will play for the B-2 preliminary western regional title, while the victors in District Seven and District Eight will meet to decide B-1 preliminary title, winners in these playoffs meeting to decide the final western regional championship.

ALLIED AIRMEN KEEP WEATHER EYE ON ARMADA

Allied Headquarters in Australia, March 2 (AP)—A 14 ship Japanese convoy, one of the largest ever assembled by the enemy in this sector of the southwest Pacific, moved westward from New Britain toward the New Guinea coast today as bad weather delayed Allied airmen waiting to strike at the armada. A communique from General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said the convoy was last sighted off Talasea, on the northern coast of New Britain and about 175 miles west of the big enemy base at Rabaul.

While its destination was still uncertain, the convoy's position was roughly 250 air miles from the Japanese strongholds of Salamaua and Lae on the northeast coast of New Guinea.

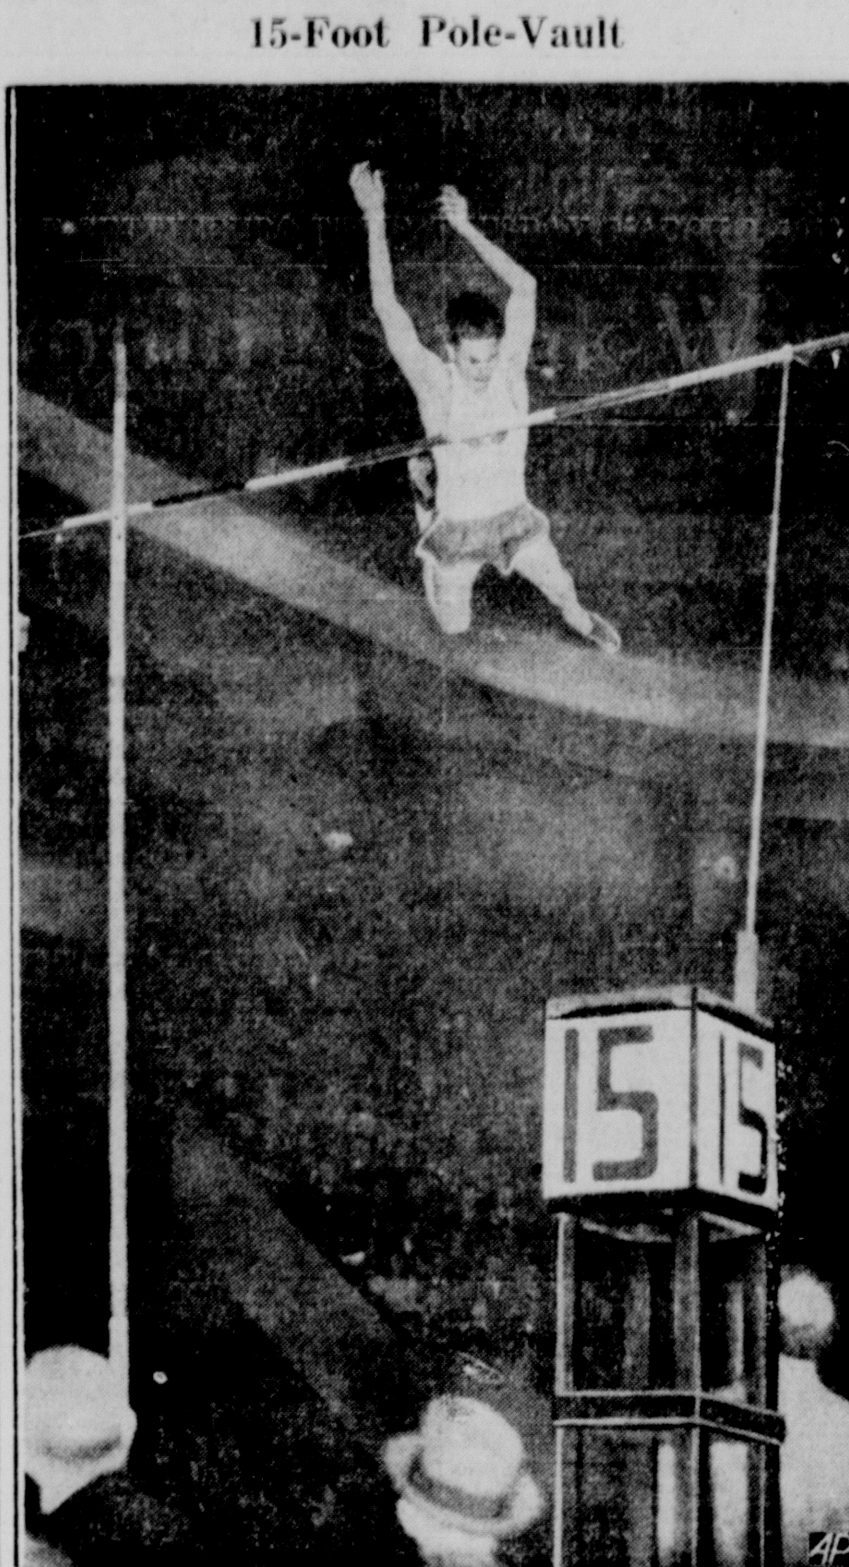

Ready to Strike
Allied airmen were poised for a blow at the Japanese force and awaited only clearing skies, but the communique indicated the enemy had chosen his weather shrewdly, reporting the ships were "moving under cover of an advancing weather front."

The convoy's appearance followed closely General MacArthur's warning Monday that the Japanese were concentrating large quantities of men, shipping and planes in the islands north of Australia, either for an offensive smash at the island continent or in anticipation of a new blow from Allied forces.

While Allied airmen waited for a crack at the convoy they continued to batter at Japanese ships, air-dromes and supply lines over a wide area.

Cage Loop To Vote On Continuance

A meeting of the West Shore Scholastic league was held Monday evening at Steelton which was attended by Prof. L. V. Stock, Ellis McCracken, Edgar Benner and Samuel Ehlman of Hightstown.

It was decided a special vote will be held March 15 on whether or not to continue the basketball league during 1943-44.

The Boiling Springs boys' and girls' basketball teams were presented first place trophies for the season just ended. The Camp Hill boys' team received a runner-up trophy. Lemoyne, Biglerville and Enola girls' teams, tied for second, will receive plaques later.

LINCOLN FIVE WINS ANOTHER

Don Ulrich's Lincoln school quintet won their fifth straight victory on the Gettysburg high school floor Monday evening by defeating the Franklin Township Consolidated dribblers 21-11.

The victory gave the locals a two-point margin with their opponents, each team having gained a decision in previous meetings.

Franklin Township was noticeably affected by the large playing floor and landed but two field goals. Meanwhile the Ulrich-men scored eight times from the floor, five coming from shots by Shaner.

Coach Shultz's boys led 5-4 in the first period but fell behind 14-7 at half time.

LOOKING AROUND

By DON BREAM
Sports Editor

C. E. Bilheimer, athletic director at Gettysburg college, announced today that the basketball game recently scheduled between the Bullets and the F. and M. Pre-Flight cagers of Lancaster for Thursday evening will be played that evening despite the blackout scheduled at that time.

The game will start at 8:15 o'clock which will enable the first half to be completed before the air raid test starts at 8:50 o'clock. Upon resumption of the all-clear at 9:30 the second half will get underway.

Some form of entertainment may be arranged for the benefit of the fans who will be forced to remain in the darkened gymnasium for 40 minutes during the test.

Arrangements were announced today for a preliminary game which will start at 8:45 o'clock when the Lutheran Theological seminary quintet will play a game with the Bullet jayvees.

Gettysburg college's cagers are using a new style of play and it is paying dividends. The team is employing the fast break, a sharp digression from Coach Bream's usual methods, and two victories resulted last week over Bucknell. The same style of basketball may be expected Thursday night when the F. and M. Pre-Flighters are here. Following Thursday's tilt the Bullets will play two games in closing their campaign.

The once-defeated Villanova quintet will be met at Philadelphia Saturday night and on March 10 the season will close with F. and M. here.

Coach "Pete" Breeson will take at least a partial wrestling squad to Haverford Friday to participate in the Middle Atlantic. The weighing in ceremonies will be held in the afternoon and preliminary matches will take place in the evening. Finals will be held Saturday.

STUART SIGNS
Pittsburgh, March 2 (AP)—Eddie Stewart signed yesterday for another year as a Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder. He came here from the San Diego club of the Pacific Coast league in 1940. Last year he played in 82 games and hit .219.

Ut's Team Wins
First round play continued last night in the Class B event, with Claysville eliminating East Bethlehem, 34 to 29 and Belle Vernon smothering Sewickley township 51 to 25.

(Clayville is coached by "Bill" Utz, former Gettysburg high school and college star.)

Tonight's preliminary Class B game at the stadium matches Leedsdale, Section 10 champions, with Rochester, of Section 11. Leedsdale has made five trips to the playoffs and never got past the second round.

At Connellsville, Derry Boro clashes with North Union in another first round Class B contest. It will be North Union's fourth trial for the big title.

Wright To Meet Pirrone March 10
Cleveland, March 2 (AP)—Chaiky Wright of Los Angeles, former world's featherweight champion, will meet home-bred Joey Pirrone in a 10-rounder at the local arena March 10.

Originally scheduled for tomorrow night, the fight had been postponed for two weeks when a boil appeared on Joey's left hand last Saturday.

At that time Atkins reserved March 14 for a title bout between Canadian Jackie Callura, the National Boxing association's featherweight champion, and Pittsburgh's Jackie Wilson, former champ. That match was cancelled, however, because of Wilson's reported failure to

CARD TRAINER URGES USE OF LONG "UNDIES"

BY GEORGE J. KIENZLE
Columbus, O., March 2 (AP)—The trainer of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals has a new plan for wrapping up the National league pennant—long underwear for players in chilly spring and sweltering summer, too.

Dr. Harrison J. (Doc) Weaver said today he had brought 144 union suits for the Cards and "if they'll only listen to reason and wear them winter and summer, they'll win the pennant in a walk."

Doc, for two decades a devotee of longies the year round, says "union suits will do the players a lot more good" than those vitamin pills club owner Sam Breadon feeds the boys to sharpen their eyesight for night games.

Keeps Out Dirt
"By keeping out dust and dirt, long underwear keeps players comfortable and in good spirits, and that's what it takes for boys like mine to win pennants," the trainer said.

Weaver became a longie addict at 36 because he "couldn't stand the feel of the goods they put in pants on the naked knee." He has been preaching his union suit gospel to Card players for 16 years—to no avail.

This year, however, he figures spring training in the north (Cairo, Ill.) gives his the drop on the boys. Once they experience the luxury of union suits, Doc asserts, they'll be easier to convert to the "never-be-without-elan."

The trainer wants it strictly understood he keeps his distance from disciples of red flannels or scratchy heavies. After years of experimenting Weaver has found what he considers the ideal union suit.

"They're so light and soft you hardly know you have them on and they make up in comfort and health what they lack in charm," he explained.

FRIENDSHIP'S SUBSTANCE
The process that goes into the making of a friend is of more account than that which results from the mobilization of a vast army.
the recapture of an important ategic city. Even than that which reflects its birth material.

Often I feel that the cornerstone of an enduring friendship rests solidly as a representation of selflessness. From that, business, understanding, beauty, peacefulness, munificence, fortitude, each is interwoven and evolved.

A friend has to be built with honest material from which the flaws are melted away.
Of ourselves we are entitles of imperfection—but a friend doesn't love anything about that. A friend can only see in our scars of injury something virile, suggesting contagion of courage. Our joys and sorrows alike attract and are sterilized into the very bone and marrow of that bodily life. Even the heartbeats are timed to understand. An unquestioned loyalty resides.

Not in a day, however, is this friend made—but down through the irregular, often dangerous trail, of in entire life. But a certain safety always hovers about. With your friend you feel safety.

To leave this world, having made out a single genuine friend, is to have lived and been a success. And, if you have been so fortunate as to have accumulated more than one friend, then your wealth stands you that much more under the eye of Heaven.

And if you would know what this divine and essential substance is, that is able to form and make forever, a friend, I would say—just love!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Losing One's Head."

Martin Asks 50 To $100 Million Post-War Fund

$41,600,000 TAX SLASH IN STATE BUDGET

By RALPH E. WALLIS

Harrisburg, March 2 (AP)—Pennsylvania's state government under recommendations of Governor Martin would operate on a slashed budget of $472,457,692 in the next biennium and at the same time authorize a bond issue of $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 for post-war financial needs.

In submitting to the Legislature the first budget in a decade below the half-billion dollar mark, the Governor outlined proposals for cutting taxes by $41,600,000 in the two-year period starting June 1.

He asserted the estimated cost of running the state is $147,130,639 less than the $619,588,331 of the present biennium and added department heads would be asked to justify every budget item before legislative committees.

Slash Non-essentials
"At a time like this it is essential that the state government be de-fated," Martin told the lawmakers in a joint session last night. "Activities not necessary to winning the war or preserving essential services should be eliminated."

His message brought praise from the Republican majority of both Houses while Democrats offered cautious comments.

"The commonwealth is in good condition to carry out its share in this war effort," the Governor declared, emphasizing the new budget was built around two major objectives of the administration—"forceful prosecution of the war and preparation for post-war adjustments."

He recommended creation of a post-war planning commission.

Since the state constitution fixes the commonwealth's debt limit at $1,000,000, the proposed bond issue would require a constitutional amendment, needing approval by two Legislatures and then adoption at a state-wide referendum.

Future Needs
"No one can foresee at this time the obligations which may be imposed upon the commonwealth as a result of the war," the Governor said. "Funds may be needed for the construction of public projects, sanitation, roads and reforestation * * * and for rehabilitation or hospitalization of soldiers."

Martin said a deficit and un-financed obligations amounting to $71,000,000 "had been discharged" when he assumed office. He forecast "a balanced budget" to begin the next biennium regardless of the fact that there are deficiencies of $3,387,554.

He listed general fund recommendations of $337,022,155—"a reduction of $17,884,031 below appropriations" of the present biennium
—and set up $6,775,222 for flood control, fish and game, banking, farm show and milk control special funds.

Tax Savings
Savings to taxpayers would result from not re-enacting the four-mill
personal property, bank stock, corporate loans and bank share emergency levies and abolishment of the retail-wholesale and other license
taxes, Martin explained.

He urged, however, reenactment
of the corporate net income, liquid fuels, cigarette, gross receipts and liquor emergency levies.

Contributing toward the tax cut
are savings of $32,000,000 in relief;
$34,000,000 in the motor license fund;
$4,300,000 in sinking fund requirements, and $945,000 in the Revenue department.

He refused to appropriate any funds for the Republican-controlled joint state government commission,
research agency of the Legislature;
but provided more funds for the bureau of vital statistics and increased road maintenance funds
from $39,908,000 to $50,300,000.

Of the joint commission, he said:
Special Session
"Up to the present time this commission has not justified the appropriations which have been made to
it. You may want to make an appropriation but before approving any amount I shall have to be convinced that a useful program of work will be undertaken."

Martin warned that a special legislative session may be necessary to cope with fiscal tangles of the future. He cited war-time uncertainties pertaining to expected revenues and expenditures.

The lawmakers, Martin said,
should "review some of the causes
of the increase in state costs," explaining the general fund recommendation is "more than a hundred million greater" than that of 10 years ago.

the Army he put this note in the window: "Please call for laundry at shoemaker next door. Key is with him. I have date with Uncle Sam."

That was all right with Tom Laconio, the shoe man, who has a son in the Army.

But Lee pulled out explaining his Chinese bookkeeping system by searching through the bundles.
Laconio was able to identify the laundry of the customers who called.
What confuses him is that he still has bundles left.

48-POINT SALUTE
Olympia, Wash. (AP)—"Two
cans of pineapple, please."
"Two cans?" the clerk asked the youth. "Why that would take your entire 48 points for the month."

"I know; they're a present for mother. I'm going to the army."

WOMEN'S PLACE
Pueblo, Colo. (AP)—"Hugh!
Nothin' but women!" snorted City Jailer Joe Zeller as he glanced at the occupants of his three cells.

It was the first time in two years
Zeller hadn't had a male prisoner.

DEFERRED SENTENCED
Roswell, N. M. (AP)—Yoeman
Chuck Mitchell of the Roswell Navy recruiting office bought a hen for Sunday dinner.

Saturday night she laid an egg.
She's still alive. Mitchell hopes she'll lay some more.

Recommendations of $337,022,155—"a reduction of $17,884,031 below appropriations" of the present biennium
—and set up $6,775,222 for flood control, fish and game, banking, farm
show and milk control special funds.

Tax Savings
Savings to taxpayers would result
from not re-enacting the four-mill
personal property, bank stock, corporate loans and bank share emergency levies and abolishment of the retail-wholesale and other license
taxes, Martin explained.

He urged, however, reenactment
of the corporate net income, liquid
fuels, cigarette, gross receipts and
liquor emergency levies.

Contributing toward the tax cut
are savings of $32,000,000 in relief;
$34,000,000 in the motor license fund;
$4,300,000 in sinking fund requirements, and $945,000 in the Revenue
department.

He refused to appropriate any
funds for the Republican-controlled
joint state government commission,
research agency of the Legislature;
but provided more funds for the bureau of vital statistics and increased road maintenance funds
from $39,908,000 to $50,300,000.

Of the joint commission, he said:
Special Session
"Up to the present time this commission has not justified the appropriations which have been made to
it. You may want to make an appropriation but before approving
any amount I shall have to be convinced that a useful program of
work will be undertaken."

Martin warned that a special
legislative session may be necessary
to cope with fiscal tangles of the future. He cited war-time uncertainties pertaining to expected revenues and expenditures.

The lawmakers, Martin said,
should "review some of the causes
of the increase in state costs," explaining the general fund recommendation is "more than a hundred million greater" than that of 10 years ago.

Income Tax

NO. 51
ADDITION TO THE TAX FOR DELAY IN FILING RETURNS

In the event of failure to make and file an income tax return as required by law within the prescribed time, a certain per cent of the amount of the tax is required to be added to the tax unless failure to file the return within the prescribed time is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

The amount to be added to the tax is 5 per cent if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 per cent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure to file a return continues, not to exceed 25 per cent in the aggregate.

A taxpayer who files a tardy return and wishes to avoid the addition to the tax for delinquency must make an affirmative showing of all facts, alleged as a reasonable cause for failure to file the return on time, in the form of an affidavit which should be attached to the return.

Alleged ignorance of the law does not constitute reasonable cause for delinquency.

Taxpayers should make every effort to file their returns within the time prescribed by law and thus avoid the possibility of the additions to the tax for delinquency in filing returns.

All persons or organization acting at any time during the year 1942 as broker or other agent in stock, bond, or commodity transactions (including banks which handle clearing orders for depositors or custodian accounts) are required to file annual returns of information on Form 1100 with respect to all customers, depositors, or accounts for whom or which the total amount of the securities exchanged, is $25,000 or more during the calendar year 1942 and each subsequent calendar year, with certain exceptions. A separate Form 1100 must be prepared for each customer, depositor, or account for whom or which business was transacted during the year, and must show the name and address and other information provided for in the form.

Information returns are carefully checked with individual returns of taxpayers. Thousands of delinquent returns and additional revenue amounting to millions of dollars have been secured as the result of the examination of information returns.

13 War Workers

Hurt In Explosion

Bristol, Pa., March 2 (AP)—At least 13 war workers were injured, some seriously, last night in an explosion and fire that wrecked part of a three-story building at the huge Rohm and Haas Chemical company plant in this industrial community near Philadelphia.

Chief of Police Lynford Jones said no one was killed.

Company spokesmen estimated damage at "at least $500,000" and blamed "a reaction of chemicals used in the processing of plastic material."

SAYS GOP LACKS PARKER VOTES

Harrisburg, March 2 (AP)—Senator Elmer J. Holland (D-Allegheny), opposing the appointment of Dr. Frank Parker to the public utility commission, predicted today the Republican majority would be unable to muster the required 34 votes necessary for confirmation.

Senator B. B. McGinnis, Democratic floor leader, said the minority probably would caucus during the day to decide its attitude on the matter, explaining "most of our men just don't know the man. They want to find out more about him."

Republican Leader Weldon B. Heyburn has announced he plans to bring up the Parker nomination despite the fact his party has only a 32-18 margin and needs minority support to obtain the needed two-thirds vote.

Holland said on the Senate floor last night that Dr. Parker, a University of Pennsylvania professor, went into eastern Pennsylvania Federal court "to have himself declared a bankrupt" but that the move was opposed by Frank Glatfelter, deputy receiver of the Lansdowne Bank and Trust company.

The Senator said Glatfelter asked that "Dr. Parker be denied the discharge of his debts," adding: "The upshot of the whole matter was that Parker was granted his discharge—and he now stands a bankrupt."

Holland previously charged Parker served as a paid witness for utility companies. Governor Martin in nominating the professor said he was "a recognized expert" in the public utility field.

20 PER CENT TAX PLANNED

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Congressional "Ruml plan" backers planned today to tie a "skip-a-tax-year" provision into legislation imposing a 20 per cent withholding levy against the taxable income of more than 30,000,000 persons earning wages and salaries.

A House Ways and Means subcommittee approved the withholding levy yesterday, effective July 1, as a means of weekly, semimonthly or monthly deductions from pay envelopes and checks. The levy would not be an additional tax, but sums collected through it would be applied to actual taxes as they are now computed. The 20 per cent would include the Victory tax which already is being withheld.

Under this or any other plan that Congress may approve, all taxpayers still must pay at least the first two installments of their 1942 income taxes, due March 15 and June 15.

The subcommittee bypassed the tax "forgiveness" issue completely for the time being, Chairman Cooper (D-Tenn.) telling newspapermen it was not decided yet whether the withholdings in the last six months of this year would be applied to 1942 or 1943 tax obligations.

Consider New Market

L. D. Shealer and the council property committee were directed to seek a second-hand truck which the borough might buy to replace the "worn out" International truck which has been in use by the town highway department for a number of years.

Burgess Pfeffer reported to council on a session held last Thursday evening between three representatives of the Adams County Market Growers association (the hucksters who attend the weekly Farmers' Market here), President Mares Sherman of the Chamber of Commerce, President H. M. Oyer of the council and the burgess concerning proposed changes in the local market arrangements.

The marketmen ask that council consider renting the former Trimmer store room in the Sachs building on York street from Mr. Sachs and sublet part of the room for use as a borough market house. The marketmen indicated there were advantages of borough control they expected to gain in that manner.

Monthly Reports

There are to be further discussions between the group but Burgess Pfeffer told councilmen he had informed the marketmen that he was sure council would not consider any such proposal unless there was a short-term lease with a guaranteed, paid-in-advance return for the borough to protect the town from any financial loss.

Councilmen recalled the "white elephant market house" the town had on its hands for five years in the Legion building but were urged by the burgess to keep their minds "open" in the matter until an exact proposal is secured from the market people.

Council voted to pay for the electric current for the airplane spotter station here; accepted the monthly reports of Burgess Pfeffer showing collections of $361.34 last month and of Treasurer John H. Bashore showing a general fund balance of $10,545 at the beginning of this month, and authorized Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner to supply the Reading company with additional revised drawings of plans for the West High street grade crossing.

President Oyer presided with Councilmen L. D. Shealer, George D. March, Ray M. Hoffman, Harry J. Troxell, Joseph D. Kendlehart, Solicitor E. V. Bullett, Secretary Wilmer Dracha, Treasurer Bashore, Burgess Pfeffer and Mr. Winebrenner present.

Labor Probe May Be Opened Soon

Washington, March 2 (AP)—An investigation of the entire field of labor relations was projected in Congress today as two House committees drove ahead with "work or fight" and other labor legislation.

Rep. Ramspeck (D-Ga.), ranking majority member of the usually inactive labor committee, predicted that body would order a general labor study next week in response to his request to Chairman Norton (D-N.J.).

As Ramspeck made public his plea for action, the House Rules committee met to vote on the Hobbs anti-racketeering bill and the Naval committee summoned Secretary Knox to testify tomorrow on absenteeism in Navy yards.

As scheduled, NBC, CBS and the BLU will carry the talks on Friday nights at 10:45, with MBS delaying its transmission until 4 p. m. Saturdays from records. MBS decided to handle the program this way because of its Friday night fights. The former CBS commentator is expected to treat on general aspects of the war both at home and abroad. Farm Production Biggest Problem

Chicago, March 2 (AP)—The nation's No. 1 domestic problem in the war effort, says former President Hoover, is the maintenance of farm production at the 1942 level to insure an adequate supply of food to our armed forces and to Great Britain and Russia.

The cutting off of normal large imports of food "by submarines and the Japs" has depleted the nation's larder, Hoover said, but he believes "we can ration down our consumption to support this drain if we could maintain the 1942 farm production."

Hoover, food administrator during the last war, said the prospective lack of farm products this year was due to "taking manpower to the armed forces and munitions; to lack of farm machinery and fertilizers, and to decrease in protein feeds."

ARRAIGNED ON MEAT CHARGE

Philadelphia, March 2 (AP)—A 66-year-old farmer living near Bristol, Bucks county, is the first person arrested in connection with an intensive drive against black markets in meat.

Patrolman Andrew Dunbar said the man was taken into custody yesterday and a quantity of beef and pork confiscated from his truck as he was about to enter a meat store in the Bridesburg section.

The farmer, booked as William Saunders, was charged with violating a city ordinance making it illegal to sell meat that is not state inspected.

OPA agents said they were studying the case to determine whether any federal violations were involved.

At the same time, Anton Reoger, Jr., chief of the state bureau of foods and chemistry, said the drive against the black markets would be extended to Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Lancaster.

ROSS IS DENIED $180,000 EXTRA FOR HIS OFFICE

Harrisburg, March 2 (AP)—Governor Martin left up to the legislature today a decision on a $180,000 deficiency appropriation requested by Auditor General F. Clair Ross.

The Chief Executive did, however, recommend a general appropriation of $1,489,000 for the Auditor General's department.

At the same time, Martin recommended deficiency appropriations of $8,387,554 for various other departments to complete the present biennium, ending May 31.

Ross was Martin's Democratic opponent for Governor in the last general election and charges of "padded payrolls" in the auditor general's department figured largely in the campaign. Ross claimed the employees were necessary.

Behind in Work

Former Governor Arthur H. James in his last message to the legislature recommended an investigation of Ross' department by the legislature. No action has been taken.

"The auditor general," Martin informed the assembly in his budget message, "is behind in his work for apparently other reasons than financial. He has had more employees than his predecessor and as much money. His expenditures have been running considerably ahead of those of the former auditor general."

The Governor pointed out that Ross' request for the deficiency appropriation now is pending before

PLEASURE DRIVING

Reading, Pa., March 2 (AP)—Four OPA agents, busy checking for pleasure drivers Sunday afternoon, discovered when they finished that their own car had been used for a joy-ride. The agents notified police and a short time later officers in a cruiser saw two youths flee from the stolen car.

Newsprint Paper Increased $4 Ton

Washington, March 2 (AP)—An increase of $4 a ton in the ceiling of newsprint paper, became effective Monday.

The increase was announced by the Office of Price Administration and the Canadian wartime prices and trade board. The joint statement pointed out that newsprint is one of the few commodities which has not increased in price since the start of the war.

Prentiss M. Brown, OPA chief, said the increase was necessary "because the newsprint industry can no longer absorb the increased cost which war conditions have brought about."

Trapped In Swamp, Clerk Is Rescued

Camden, N. J., March 2 (AP)—Mired to the hips in a swamp, Vincent J. Stafford, 40-year-old Philadelphia postal clerk, was rescued by fireman early today after a woman who lives nearby heard his crying for help.

Stafford was treated at a hospital for exposure and shock. It was not immediately determined how he became stuck in the swamp, which fronts Newton creek.

The Appropriations committee of each House and added:

"Since this officer is independent (of the Governor) it will be your duty to consider any justification of his requests."
